- 2013 News & Updates from the AFC Faculty Commission:
  - The Faculty Commission plans to join the Joint Spring Conference in which we will hold our annual semi-final Professor of the Year teaching demonstrations. As of 1/22, we are still waiting on a date & location in order to send the nomination information to all members statewide. The final 3 presenters will present at the annual convention, per usual.
  - The Faculty Commission has completed its review and modifications of the Professor of the Year award documents. The rubrics, language, and focus were unanimously modified at the convention and in emails throughout the last few months. The new rubrics for the written materials and teaching demonstration are attached for the board's review.
  - Goal #1 in 2013: The Faculty Commission will continue its partnership this year with McGraw-Hill, pending their continued sponsorship. If not, we will seek to find a new sponsor to support the Faculty Commission.
  - Goal #2 in 2013: The Faculty Commission will update the Vivian M. Dellinger award documents and increase awareness regarding this award.
  - Goal #3 in 2013: The Faculty Commission will update the AFC Faculty Commission webpage.
  - Goal #4 in 2013: The Faculty Commission will seek to coordinate a professional development panel and/or workshop at both the Joint Spring Conference and annual Convention this year.
  - Goal #5 in 2013: The Faculty Commission will seek to create an AFC-sponsored "Faculty Commission" Facebook page to highlight our events, connect faculty statewide, post announcements, and much more.
