2017 Spring Conference

The LRC plans to host its second virtual conference on March 28, 2017 as its spring professional development opportunity. A call for presenters will be made in the coming weeks. The exemplary practices competition will begin during this virtual conference. Changes will be made in 2017 to allow for commission fundraising this year, a librarian project show and tell opportunity, a service project, as well as the launch of a 2017 AFC Book Discussion. Participation from the AFC board in this conference is welcome. Last year's introduction to AFC and the benefits of membership presented by Hector Valle was well attended and very much appreciated by commission members. As virtual conference details become finalized, updates will be posted at <https://goo.gl/ygxG7V>
