President's Welcome

Dr. Gary Sligh
AFC President

I love trips! Ever since I was a little kid and we piled in the family car to drive from Virginia to Florida, I have savored the value of the journey and the road that leads to the future. For me, there is nothing quite like that sense of anticipation about what lies ahead.

This year's convention theme, A Road to the Future, attempts to capture that expectation as we gather for the 63rd Annual Convention of The Association of Florida Colleges. We will fill in a few more pages of the history of this great association as we gather together this week.

You will find within the pages of this program a wealth of activities to keep you busy. We have a variety of business meetings and presentations, banquets and healthy activities, parties and a silent auction, awards and recognitions, a graduation ceremony, and hours of conversation with friends from all over Florida! If you get lost or can't find an activity for you, just ask someone on the AFC staff or talk to someone here at the resort, and you are sure to make good use of your time.

Any event of this size and complexity does not happen without hard work. Our devoted AFC staff lead the way in preparing for our days together. A host of volunteers also make the details of this week fall into place – they make it look easy. Remember to say thanks to all the folks who work together to bring success to our great association.

And welcome to Innisbrook! If you have never been here before, take some time to enjoy the beautiful setting that surrounds us, to walk a bit in the natural walkways, to savor a fine meal. Some may even want to squeeze in a round of golf or a trip to the spa.

I welcome you to this AFC Convention. Please stop me and say hello as we embark on A Road to the Future.

Gary Sligh, 2012 AFC President

From the Executive Director

---

For 63 years, we have referred to this annual event as the “convention”. By definition, according to Wikipedia, a convention, which comes from the Mayan words “con” or “to fool”, and “vent” or “to shout”, indicates that early conventions involved a lot of foolishness and shouting. Conventions are notorious for being held in exotic locations and over several days, where the participants can try to drink and party to excess. Occasionally, a meeting may break out.

A large meeting on the other hand is bunch of people getting together for the purpose of discussing a specific subject. In some typical meetings, certain people are there to accomplish something, some may be there to just look on, and others may not have a clue about the subject but show up to look busy. Meetings are generally small in scope and last between a couple hours and a full work day.

Conferences, though, are usually composed of various and numerous presentations over a few days. They tend to be short and concise, with a time span of about 45-60 minutes, and are usually followed by a discussion. Usually a conference will include keynote speakers such as scholars and other individuals. In addition to presentations, conferences also feature panel discussions, round tables on various issues and workshops. A few meetings may also be held in conjunction with a conference. However, typically everyone is actively engaged in learning and growing professionally at a conference.

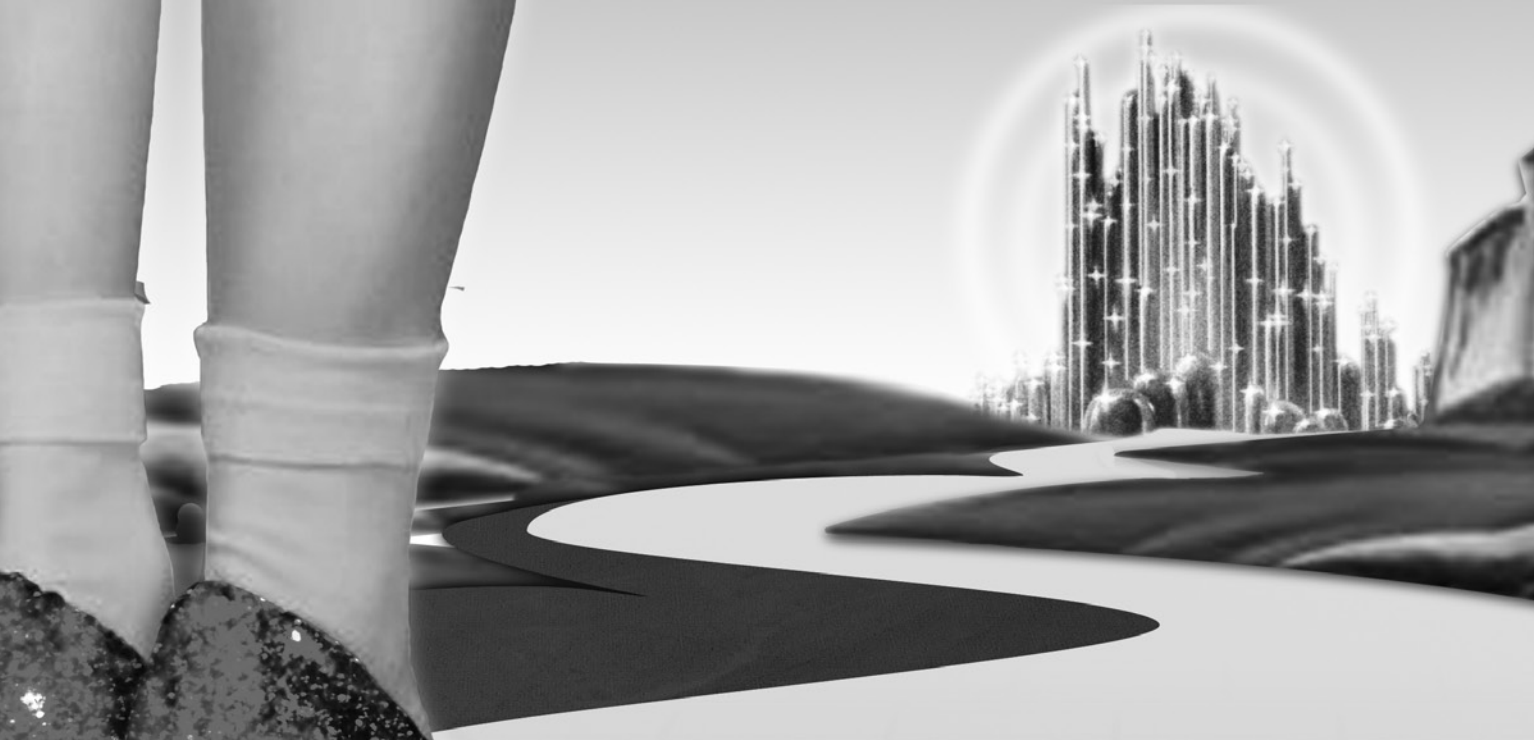

You may recall that one of my goals when I became the Association CEO in November 2008 was to morph our Convention into a Conference. Now, in 2012, I am convinced we have actually made that transition, despite our continued use of the term convention. This year you will find that we have 48 individual educational sessions across numerous topical areas. Moreover, our trade show will feature the best and most current resources and technology information to help you do your jobs more effectively and more efficiently serve your students. A conference it is, indeed. Enjoy your time here this week, and thank you for your support of the AFC.

Chancellor's Best Practice Awards

Randy Hanna,
Chancellor, Division of Florida Colleges

It is my honor to announce the 2012 Chancellor's Best Practice Awards. The Best Practice Awards recognize programs that strive to be the most efficient and innovative in a system which is regarded as a model for the nation.

This year's winning submissions include a wide-variety of programs. Whether its developmental reading, writing and mathematics education; providing a skilled worker pipeline; preparing the next generation of effective college administrators; or programs that reduce the impact of poverty on students and their families, each of these program has been specifically tailored to meet the needs of its students. We are proud of the faculty and staff at our colleges that have worked tirelessly to bring our colleges these unique opportunities.

Congratulations to all whose programs are being recognized and to all who submitted innovative practices. This was a particularly tough year to judge as all the submissions were excellent. I encourage you to continue to inspire your colleagues and the students you serve by sharing your innovations and ideas.

Sincerely,

Randy Hanna, Chancellor

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Programs designed to help students achieve their educational and life goals by improving curriculum or instruction while striving for excellence in the quality of learning.

My Bridge to Success St. Petersburg College

Redesigning upper-level developmental math, reading, and writing courses as eight-week, 2 credit hour courses reduced the time that some students spent in remedial coursework; allowed some students to take transfer level math, reading, and/or writing courses in the same semester; individualized instruction through course modularization; and promoted student success through careful supervision/mentoring by faculty. Content delivery included mini-lectures by faculty and diagnostic testing to tailor instruction for specific course competencies.

Chancellor's Best Practice Awards

BUSINESS AFFAIRS

Programs developed to build partnerships with local or state businesses or programs designed to create efficiencies within an institution or the surrounding community.

Broward College President's Leadership Academy Broward College

Knowing the number of baby boomer's projected to retire from the college, as well as knowing the exact number of Broward employees in the FRS DROP program with known retirement dates; President Armstrong believed succession planning was an absolute necessity and that a leadership academy would be the most proactive way to address this need. A Steering Council worked for one year to develop the PLA program, including an application process, criteria for acceptance and components of the program, workshop topics with expected learning outcomes, and a mentoring element and with potential mentors.

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Programs intended to enrich learning through meaningful activities outside of the classroom to promote personal growth, student engagement and success.

MDC Single Stop Miami Dade College

Single Stop USA (SSUSA) in collaboration with Miami Dade College is a revolutionary initiative to slash poverty nationally with an approach that is simple, effective and ultimately paradigm-shifting. Single Stop bridges the information gap separating low-income families from life-changing public benefits, tax credits and other essential services that remain untapped and inaccessible. These basic resources - food, health insurance, child care and tax refunds - increase the likelihood that families are healthy and stable, with parents who work and children who attend school.

WORKFORCE AFFAIRS

Career, technical degree, and certificate programs which prepare students for entry into specific fields of employment.

Power Plant Technology Institute Indian River State College

The Power Plant Technology Institute at IRSC serves as a skilled worker pipeline for energy companies. Over 100 graduates have been employed in the energy sector at salaries averaging $55,000. Students complete courses taught by industry experts, participate in paid summer internships and earn an Associate degree. The program reduces recruitment costs, creates a pool of prepared workers and supports excellent employment opportunities. The success of the program earned IRSC an NSF grant to establish a regional center for the Southeast US to train trainers in nuclear energy education.

ARE YOU A VOTING DELEGATE?

AFC is your Association. Each year, conference delegates have the opportunity to elect state officers. It is important that each chapter's delegates are actively involved in guiding the direction of the Association.

So, how do you know if you are a delegate?

Each chapter president selects delegates to represent the chapter during the Assembly of Delegates for bylaws changes and voting of new officers. Your chapter president will let you know if you have been selected as a delegate. Once your chapter has selected its delegates, an official list will be sent to the state office and this designation will be noted on your registration. When you pick up your name badge at convention, delegate will be listed by your name. Your badge should be used as identification while voting on Friday, November 2 at 7:00 am in Inverness Foyer.

How many delegates does a chapter have?

This number is based on a 1:10 ratio, i.e. one delegate per 10 (ten) paid members.

What if I need to change a delegate once we are at convention?

Changes can be made at our Credentials desk in the registration area (PreConvene). Have your chapter president come see Bobbi Moran or Alice Pendergrass at the Credentials desk and they will be happy to assist you in filling out the appropriate paperwork to make this change. These forms can only be signed by the chapter president.

The most important part of being a delegate is to be present. You must be present on Friday, November 2 to vote. Remember voting begins at 7:00 am and runs until 8:15 am. Make sure your chapter's voice is heard. Make sure you VOTE!

ATTENTION DELEGATES:

Voting for officers will take place on Friday, November 2, 2012 from 7:00AM - 8:15AM in the Inverness Foyer.

Each delegate must bring his or her name badge to be eligible to vote.

Its aim is to recognize exemplary research and information literacy skills of Santa Fe College students, as evidenced by course papers. The Library Research Award is an annual award and is now in its third year. Students submit research papers that were written for Santa Fe College courses within the past calendar year, along with a reflective questionnaire that gathers information about their research strategies and experience. Each applicant's packet is reviewed by both librarians and faculty from within their content area, employing a standardized rubric. Packets are evaluated both on content and on information literacy skills. Up to three awards are given annually at the college's annual student awards ceremony, each with a cash prize. The number of applicants has more than doubled from the first year to the second year, and we are anticipating that this will continue to grow. The quality of applications has likewise improved. Feedback from faculty and students has been overwhelmingly positive. The introduction of this award has helped improve information literacy awareness and has fostered connections between the library and the campus as a whole.

Seminole State College of Florida was previously a two-year community college. Through our advising sessions and discussions with parents, it was noted that a more inclusive and efficient delivery of information was needed. It was determined that a large group paradigm would be employed in an effort to maximize learning while effectively utilizing staff. Further, a computer classroom would be used to enhance learning maneuverability through the College computer software to register for their first semester courses and beyond. This delivery method includes visual, auditory, and kinesthetic learning to encompass all learning styles. Positive feedback from parents and students alike indicated that their expectations, concerns, and questions had been answered promptly and that they had gained substantial knowledge by attending.
